Rev. J. R. Verry's Resignation as Pastor of Third Baptist Church Accepted—Has Labored Here 2 1/2 Years—Other Mention About the Village.

Rev. Joseph R. Verry, pastor of the Third Baptist church, has offered his resignation to take effect September 1, and at a meeting of the pulpit committee of the church Thursday night it was accepted. Mr. Verry's health has been undermined by his strenuous efforts in raising the mortgage on the church and now that his health has been successfully accomplished, he feels that he had completed the work he had in mind when he began his pastorate here.

Mr. Verry assumed the pastorate of the Third Baptist church in January, 1908, coming from East Longmeadow, Mass. After accepting the call here he turned his attention to reducing the church debt with the result that the final payments of a total sum of nearly $2,000 were made during the first of June, followed by a mortgage burning on June 9. The church now stands free of encumbrance for the first time in many years.

This has been the shortest of any of his pastorates. He was at Clinton, Conn., 4 1/2 years, Lyme 5 years, Somerset, Mass., 5 years, and East Longmeadow 5 years. From almost all his churches he has lifted debts, starting with $4,500 even before his ordination at a pastorate in Rhode Island.

He and his family have made many friends during their residence here and their departure will be regretted. Rev.
Mr. Verry was highly respected by his brother clergymen in this city.

The pulpit committee of the church comprises Smith Barnes and Amos A.
Baldwin, S. E. Peckham, Sterling Nelson and W. P. Greene, the deacons and trustees. They will take up the matter of securing a new minister shortly.

Personals and Briefs.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis J. Connelly of Fourth street have returned from their wedding trip.

Miss Florina Mulrowe of Williamantic is the guest of Miss Mary T. Sullivan of Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Noyes of Harford are the guests of Mrs. Noyes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman W. Whit-ting of Boswell avenue.

R. L. Sage, formerly of this city and cashier at the Greenville offices of the Connecticut company, and now cashier at Hartford, was visiting friends in town Thursday. He attended the boat race.

William H. Collins, having moved out of the district, has resigned as a member of the Greenville school board. The vacancy was not filled, inasmuch as Attorney John H. Barnes, whose remarks were cut short at the school meeting, claims that his client, pastorate here. His physician has advised him to give up preaching for the present and take a good rest. Mr.

REV. JOSEPH R. VERRY.

Verry hopes to make arrangements with the church committee whereby he may conclude his pastorate at once, presiding his last sermon Sunday. If such arrangements can be made Mr. Verry will take a well earned vacation, but will not move out of town with his family until fall. No definite plans for the future have been decided upon by Rev. Mr. Verry after he leaves Greenville.

ROBINSON FAMILY ELECT OFFICERS

Descendants of Arad Robinson Have Large Gathering in Franklin—Twenty-sixth Annual Reunion.

The 26th annual reunion of the descendants of Arad Robinson took place Thursday at the Robinson homestead on Prospect Hill, Franklin. The old homestead is owned and occupied by Deacon Lavius A. Robinson, and his family.

Came from Norwich, Eng.

Arad Robinson was fifth in line from Rev. John Robinson, who was born in Norwich, county Suffolk, England, was of Episcopal parentage, and was educated at Cambridge university, which at that day was the breeder of Puritanism. He, with William Brewster, another Puritan of the strictest kind, separated from the Church of England on account of the Congregationalist side of church government.

At Scrooby, England, was held the first meeting of the Congregationalist church, with the Rev. John Robinson the pastor in 1614.

John Robinson was a separatist. He feared to hear any minister of the the blacksmith shop until his death, September 15, 1872.

Eight children were born to Arad and Laura Robinson. Lura Abby (Hyde), Rosamond Miranda (Gager), Nancy Jane (Hyde), Mary Taylor (Manning), Asenath Abel (Thacker), Lucy Elizabeth (Manning), Lavius Arad Robinson, and Nelson Dexter Robinson. Of their children only two are now living, Lavius Robinson Manning and Lavius Arad Robinson, both being present at the reunion on Thursday.

The family now number 152, and of this number 100 were present, including five guests.

Dinner on Lawn and Election.

Soon after 12 o'clock the family gathered on the lawn in front of the homestead. They were seated at two long tables, over which was stretched a large awning or tent. Prayer was offered by Deacon Robinson.

Dinner was followed by a business meeting, at which the following officers were elected: President, Deacon Lavius A. Robinson; vice president, Mrs. Lucy E. Manning; secretary, George E. Manning; treasurer, William E. Manning; historian, George E.

Manning.

Committees were elected as follows:
Reaction of tables, Herbert Manning; collation, Arad Manning, Clifford H.
Robinson, Samuel N. Hyde; constitution and by-laws, Mrs. N. D. Robinson, Arthur R. Kenney and Lloyd R. Robinson; entertainment, Mrs. Grace Manning and Miss Lillian Manning.

During the past year there have been no deaths. There were five additions to the family, two by marriage and three births.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted.

A new awning or tent covering and several tables and seats have been purchased during the past year, and it was voted that each member of the association pay a portion of the expenses.

Entertainment.

After the business meeting an entertainment programme was given.
Mrs. George L. Ladd rendered one of her charming recitations. Our New Minister's Reception, that caused much laughter; Miss Vera Briggs recited Little Boy Blue in a pleasing way. The remainder of the programme follows:

Recitation, My Little Doggie, Master Mildred Manning; recitation, Sunday School Picnic, Arthur Randall; recitation, Woman's Dendery, Bessie Randall; recitation, Song of Life, Ethel Randall; recitation, The Christening, Mrs. Rose Manning; recitation, Educating Sonney, Mrs. Ruben Manning; recitation, Talk, Mrs. Cora; recitation, Painting the Sign, Holloway Coe; musical skit, Topsy Turvey, by four little girls, Lois Manning, Alice Cadmann, Nettie Ward and Katherine Palmer.

The entertainment programme was closed by all singing America.

During the day several photographs were taken by Lloyd R. Robinson. The family started for their homes at about 6 o'clock, the occasion to be long remembered by all.

o'clock in the morning, Constable Kinney and Lucia C. Fenton, who has been appointed special constable will attend to the enforcement of the law in this locality.

OBITUARY.

Capt. A. J. Comstock.

Capt. Andrew J. Comstock, famous sailing master for a period of half a century, died Friday at 5 a. m. in his home at 9 Hempstead street, New London. He was the last of an illustrious family of seamen, all being widely known for ability in handling sailing vessels.

Captain Comstock, 82 years old, had been in failing health for several years, and in the past few weeks had been sinking gradually. His condition turned for the worse on Saturday and since that time his physician and the members of his family had expected his death at any time.

The captain is survived by his wife, who was Miss Mary Timmer of New London, and one son, Joseph C.
Comstock, deputy collector of customs of New London. Six brothers, Peter, Honore, Robert, Charles, Nelson and G. Washington Comstock, and two sisters, Mrs. Ewell and Mrs. Crocker, have died before Captain Andrew.

Captain Andrew held the longest record of continual service, over 27 years and five months without losing a single day, stepping from one yacht to another and not losing a single day's pay. He enjoyed a well earned competence for many years and was an encyclopedia of facts connected with American yachting.

Capt. A. J. Comstock was one of the oldest members of Union lodge, No. 51, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons.
